To Whom it may concern:

The officers of IBEW 234 request that you consider our position on the following matter. We feel that we did not receive anything of value over $25 and did not file form LM 30's. We now are filing because of the late notice from NECA of the cost of a dinner we attended. Our attorney advised us to file late and attach a copy of the fax from NECA and a letter of explanation.

We received a fax from our NECA Chapter Manager on 8-16-05 informing us that they were filing a form LM 10 and listing 3 officers of IBEW Local Union 234 as receiving something of value amounting to $140. This was their Christmas Dinner that they invited us to. We had chicken and 1 soft drink. The total value of the meal could not have been more than $20.

I believe that NECA is showing the total cost of the evening, including the facility rental and alcoholic beverages (we did not drink any alcohol). Their contractors drank several drinks each and they also had prizes for some of their members. We received no prizes.

Yours truly,

Bernie Wall
